

The Bow Valley Call

Devoted to the Up-Building of Gleichen and the Development of the District

Year VI, No. 5

GLEICHEN, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, APRIL 23 1913

Per Year $1.50

Sifton Government Sustained Gleichen Elects J. P. McArthur

As forecasted in the last issue of the CALL the Alberta Government was sustained with a considerably increased opposition, and in the Gleichen constituency the result was close.

Premier Sifton has 36 members to support him, while Leader Mitchell has 17, and there is one seat still doubtful.

J. P. McArthur has won in the Gleichen constituency for the Liberals with a majority of 47.

Thus the CALL was not very far off in its forecast last week.

The election generally was the hardest fought ever witnessed since Alberta became a province and in some constituencies very bitterly.

In Gleichen town the Conservatives were well organized and accomplished good work. The Liberals were poorly organized but on the day of the election showed enthusiasm that if spread over the previous weeks might have made a difference.

It seems rather strange that Mr. McArthur made his greatest gains close to his own town, while Mr. McElroy's gains were farthest from home. It was generally expected throughout the riding that as the 2 candidates live close together that their nearest polls would be the keenest contested and the vote be pretty even. However, Mr. McArthur had some what the advantage in having previously contested this district, and therefore, was better prepared for the election, yet he was not accompanied by orators with the reputation that his opponent had and he may well feel that he has personally won the election by the confidence placed in him by the electors.

On the other hand Mr. McElroy can justly console himself in making so good a run against a government supporter. In the east end of the big constituency he was not well known to the electors, and yet his admirers and supporters succeeding in giving him good majorities. He can certainly claim that when an election comes around again that he is entitled to first choice in the Conservative ranks as a candidate to contest this riding, having taken up the burden three others objected to.

There is one thing to be admired in the Gleichen contest and that is that neither candidate indulged in personalities. It was a good clean election so far as the two gentlemen are concerned. This is the more admirable when it is considered they have known each other for many years and have been engaged in the same line of business.

The CALL has not had the opportunity of interviewing either of the candidates since the day of election, and may here only add that it is reported Mr. McElroy is considering the advisability of entering a protest, but on just what grounds it is not stated. However, the recount to be held by Returning Officer W. W. Brown will be looked forward to with interest next Monday, April 28th.

For some reason the reports from most of the polling places in the Gleichen constituency only gave the majorities of the candidates on the night of the election and it has been most difficult since to get complete reports. However, here is all obtainable at the hour of going to press:

Town Council

The Town Council Friday evening resulted in rather a short session. The motions being as follows:

Ald. Leggatt and McKay—That the court of revision be held on May 15th instead of May 9th.

Ald. Leggatt and McKay—That Burr & Sons be notified to comply with their agreement re cemetery grounds and have the land cleared by April 25th.

Ald. Service and Yates—That Brent Noxen & Co. be given three weeks' option on the $5000 debentures.

It was decided that the tenders for sidewalks be held over until the next meeting.

Ald. Leggatt and Larkin—That the petition for a sidewalk on Eighth avenue be referred to the Public Works Committee.

Ald. Service and Yates—That a roadway be fenced into the nuisance ground.

Ald. Service and Leggatt—That the secretary draw up a by-law to raise the sum of $5000 and present the same for reading at the next meeting.

Ald. Yates and Leggatt—That Ald. Larkin be added to the Public Works Committee.

Ald. Leggatt and Service—That the Public Works Committee be instructed to make arrangements for Messrs. Cosgrove & Nottor to connect with the waterworks.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church realised $43 from the sale of their home cooking and fancy work in the People's Parlors, Saturday afternoon, and wish to thank the gentlemen who made donations.

Mrs. A. E. Jones spent several days the past week visiting her daughter Emma and friends in Calgary.

The Oddfellows anniversary services to be held in the Methodist church next Sunday morning will be conducted by Rev. Mr. McWilliams. All are invited to attend, and visiting brethren are requested to meet at the Hall with Prairie Lodge No. 44 at 10.30 sharp.

Remember the date of Mr. Taube's visit to Yates' Drug Store on Wednesday, May 7th, and if there is anything wrong with your sight, do not fail to consult him.

It is estimated conservatively that there is fully 70 per cent of the grain is seeded in the Gleichen district. The continued warm dry weather has been ideal for seeding, and although some faint-hearted people began to express the opinion that this would be a dry season and irrigation much needed, a light fall of snow Monday night gave them relief and now they are quite cheerful.

At half past seven o'clock on Tuesday evening, April 8th at the home of Mr. J. J. Robinson, Mr. Herbert William Atkins, of Standard was united in matrimony to Miss Hilma Constance Anderson of New York city by Rev. H. L. Dougan. The young couple will reside at Standard.

Sad Drowning Accident

George Leahey, a young man of scarcely 17 years was drowned last Thursday in the backwaters of the Southern Alberta Land Company's Irrigation Canal, about 15 miles southeast of Gleichen.

It appears that at this point there is a coulee dipping north to the Bow river, which the canal crosses, and on the north side of the canal a dam was built up by taking the earth from the south, thus making a deep cut in the coulee with the intention of filling it with water when the canal was in shape for use, but the melting snow, this spring, has filled the cut, which in places is about 30 feet deep.

From the information gathered the young fellow had dinner at one of P. Burns' camps and struck out to round up some cattle for Frank Hill, by whom he was employed. It is thought he was following the cattle along the cut when his horse slipped and went into the water, which at this point was fully 14 feet deep and as he could not swim he was drowned.

Friday morning the young fellow's horse was found at Mr. Hill's ranch with the saddle turned and the reins trailing. George not appearing, the trailing reins were traced over some plowed ground and then Mr. Hill ordered his 15 men to accompany him in a search, finally the horse's blanket was picked up and as it was wet it was feared George was in the Bow river, but later his hat was discovered floating in the cut. Meantime Corporal Irvine was notified and proceeded to the scene and when Mr. Hill rode to the point at which the hat was recovered, on George's horse, the animal immediately refused to approach the spot. Drugging was at once started, but Saturday night fell without result, and the Corporal sent his assistant to take his place in helping Mr. Hill and his men. The sagacity of the police and the cowboys here showed to advantage and with a barbed wire they dragged back and forth until the body was brought to the surface Sunday morning. The long hours of drugging were made more painful as the father and mother of the deceased, having learned of the accident arrived at the lake, and refused to leave until the body of their boy was recovered.

The remains were brought to Gleichen Sunday afternoon and it was heart-breaking to witness the distress of the relatives of the young man when the funeral took place conducted by Rev. Mr. McWilliams. Coroner Ross held an inquest, and after taking the jury to examine the cut where the accident occurred, they gave the following verdict: "That the deceased, George A. Leahey came to his death through misadventure, through drowning. It is our opinion that the horse deceased was riding slipped and fell into a deep water hole, the said water-hole being formed by an irrigation canal. We would recommend that this and all other such water-holes along the canal be protected."

GEORGE LANE ELECTED IN BOW VALLEY

George Lane is the member-elect for the legislature to represent the Bow Valley Riding. He defeated Harold Riley by a majority of 125, and was in the lead at every poll. The Rosebud poll has yet to be sent in, but the vote there will be only about 18.

In Brooks there were one hundred and forty four votes cast. One was spoiled, the voter having written his name on it. Fourteen were tied up, being contested. Sixty-five were counted for Lane and sixty-four for Riley. Bassano handclipped for Lane.

CUT OFF GIRL'S HAIR

Man Then Sells the Lock for Price of a Dinner

Paris.—A man named Chaignon was sentenced a thirteen months' imprisonment for a curious offense recently.
 He went to a house in the Rue Roy some weeks ago, and waking one of the servants, showed her a pair of scissors, and gave her the choice of the loss of her head or her hair.
 I would rather lose my hair, said the girl.

Taking off a handkerchief in which her head was wrapped, she showed the court that the man had cut her hair so closely that he would have her in several places. He sold it afterward for the price of a dinner.

You will go to prison for thirteen months, said the judge. Your hair ought to be Chignon, not Chaignon.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS MAKING A REPUTATION IN THE WEST

Saskatchewan Man Tells How He Cured Him, After Four Months'
 Suffering from Backache and Other Forms of Kidney Disease

St. Phillips, Sask. (Special).—In a new country where changes of climate and impure water are among the difficulties to be surmounted, kidney trouble is prevalent. It is the kidneys, the organs that strain the impurities out of the blood, that first feel any undue strain on the body. Consequently Dodd's Kidney Pills have been well tried and tested in this neighborhood.

They have stood the test. Many settlers tired of backache, rheumatism and urinary troubles cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Otto Oleschewski is one of these. In speaking of his cure he says:

"I suffered from kidney disease for four months. My back ached, I had heart flutterings, and was always tired and nervous. My skin had a harsh, dry feeling; my limbs were heavy; and I had a dragging sensation across the loins.

"I consulted a doctor, but, as I did not appear to improve, I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used six boxes, and now I am all right."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always stand the test. Ask your neighbors.

Never Again

Father, did mother accept you the first time you proposed to her?
 Yes, my dear, but since then any proposal that I have ever made she has scornfully rejected.

Not Tending to Business

A country doctor was recently called upon to visit a patient who resided at a distance. Arriving at his destination he tied his horse to a tree near by, and walked towards the house.

It happened that work was in progress on a new well of which the doctor knew nothing until he found himself sinking into the earth. He fell just far enough to be unable to get out of the hole unassisted, and yelled lustily for help.

When he was finally pulled up his rescuer remarked: I say, doctor, you had no business down there.

No, I hadn't, replied the doctor.
 Don't you know, continued his rescuer, you ought to leave the well alone and look after the sick.

Don't you think that women are as capable of making laws as men?
 More so. Give a woman a motor-

His Request

So you have determined to sue me
 for breach of promise?

Yes.
 With damages.

Of course.
 Well, say I've got just one favor to ask of you. Don't sue me for less than $100,000. I haven't got a dollar in the world that I can call my own, and it might help my credit.

ACTRESS ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Strange Drama of Misplaced Affection
 Now Before Tribunal in Naples

Naples, Italy.—Yvonne de Villes-preux, the fascinating actress, who formerly belonged to a dramatic company run by Dini Galli, herself a most brilliant light comedy artist, is now standing her trial here for killing her lover, Dr. Ettore Turdo.

The case is replete with psychological interest. One evening in November, 1909, when the Galli company was performing at the Quirinal Theatre, Rome, Turdo, who had just won high university honors in medicine, was introduced to Villespreux by Sig-norina Esterina a young actress friend of hers in the same company. All supped together, with a party of youths of the smart set in the capital.
 Villespreux was so impressed by the assiduous court paid her by Dr.
 Turdo that next day she accepted his invitation to live with him, and organized with Esterina to yield her salary for a consideration of 300 francs. About Christmas time Turdo parted from his lover, as an order had come from Naples to attend his oratorical Luigi, a barrister, and a violent corporamanager.

Hither, in the beginning of March, 1910, came also the Dina Galli company, and Villespreux, who had been a free lover, but after persistent endeavors of Villespreux, consented to marry her with a certain amount of money contributed by a friend. Villes-preux's maintenance and her pay was only 11 a day.

Thenceforth she performed the most menial offices for the corporamanager brother, and with the consent of the medical attendants, arranged for a continuous stream of pretty artist visitors to distract his mind. Suddenly the manager conceived a strong dislike for her, and during one of his drug his accused her of aspiring to marry into their noble family. A violent struggle ensued, in which she attacked him vigorously, and was herself severely cut on the hand by broken glass.

Next evening, March 9, the other residents in the boarding house, the couple were staying were startled by the noise of revolver shots, and rushing in, they found Turdo bleeding to death. The actress was seen on the bed with a Browning, which they wrested from her. The only spectator of the tragedy was a little girl, the daughter of another theatrical artist, who had entrusted the child to Villespreux's keeping while she attended a rehearsal.

Villespreux first maintained that the weapon came into her possession several days earlier. Turdo having seized it from his manager brother's grasp and asked her to hide it. Then on the fatal night when he announced to her his intention of quitting her, she was about to restore the weapon to him as it was the only object she had that belonged to him.

Turdo, however, approaching her behind unaware, touched her arms, and the weapon went off accidentally.
 She explained the position of the wounds, stating that she was left-handed, but Turdo before expiring in hospital, made no secret of the fact that there had been a painful scene due to jealousy, which she cut short by firing a revolver at him. Otherwise she spoke kindly of her, begging that she should not be prosecuted.

Villespreux's cited version is that she contemplated committing suicide a despair at the parting, because one week previously she had broken off a theatrical touring contract at Turdo's appeal, while a weekly Perugian magazine, who for years past had been in the habit of giving her a handsome monthly allowance, had just stopped it entirely on learning of her double dealing.

The accused woman is now 29, and is being defended by two of the smartest lawyers in Italy.

A Valuable Antique

An old lady was searching in the odd to take home with her. Finally she noticed a quaint figure, the head and said: What's that queer old Japanese idol over there worth?

The clerk answered in a subdued tone: About $250,000, ma'am. That's ing, of course you wave the red flag, said his friend, proceeding with his explanation.

 Man, dear, it'll never do, said Patrick, shaking his head solemnly. I could never trust myself to remember to wave a red flag when there was a

Anaemic Condition or Bloodlessness

A peculiar pallor or even ghastliness of the skin is the marked symptom of anaemia. The eyelids, gums, and lips appear to be almost bloodless.
 The cause of this condition is the absence of red corpuscles from the blood.

The anaemic patient is usually thin and weak; but may be fleshy and inclined to dropsy. Stomach troubles and weakness of the bodily organs are accompaniments.

Red corpuscles must be added to the blood, and this can best be accomplished by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This great food cure is so gentle and natural in action that it is admirably suited for the use of women and girls suffering from anaemia or other diseases which arise from an impoverished condition of the blood.

It is readily assimilated, enters the blood streams and carries health and strength to every organ of the body.

The vigor of the digestive system is quickly restored, and the food taken into the body is properly digested and nourishment supplied to the whole system.

To get well and keep well you must supply the body with an abundance of pure, rich blood. Nothing can help

PANAMA TOLL CASE

AN AMICABLE UNDERSTANDING IS SOON EXPECTED

It is believed that President Wilson will assume an attitude on the Canal Controversy that will prove agreeable to Great Britain.

Washington, D.C.—The report from England that Ambassador Bryce has informed his Government that President Wilson may be expected to assume an attitude on the Panama tolls controversy that will prove agreeable to Great Britain than the policy of his predecessor, caused no surprise to those in Washington who have followed closely indications of the President's feelings on the subject. As far back as last summer, Washington despatches acknowledged that such a small concession on the part of the United States in the language of the Panama Canal Act was necessary to make that measure acceptable to Great Britain that it seemed incredible that a friendly settlement in the end would not be reached.

The President's inclination to take a more sympathetic view of the British protest against discrimination of the American coasting vessels has been suggested in the disfavor with which he is understood to have learned of the appointment of no-toll senators to the committee on inter-oceanic canals. Any bill amending the Panama Canal Act would be referred to that committee.

Mr. Wilson has been guarded in his utterances on the subject of the canal tolls and there is reason to believe that he does not wish to complicate the tariff situation by taking a stand just now. Just which a majority of his party in both houses, as well as the party platform has declared. The President has long been a close friend of Ambassador Bryce, their writings on allied subjects having brought them into communication many years ago, and it is thought that he has revealed his real sentiments to the diplomat.

A careful reading of Sir Edward Grey's note of last summer to Ambassador Bryce, which the Ambassador read to Secretary Knox, led to the opinion in certain quarters that in spite of Sir Edward's broad denial of the American right to any discrimination in favor of American shipping, he would accept the bill then pending as a fair recognition of Great Britain's treaty rights if two amendments were made. One of these was to make it certain that only American ships exclusively engaged in the coastwise trade would be allowed free passage through the canal. The other was to make it plain that the exemption of certain American tolls would constitute a loss to the American treasury and not constitute an additional burden on the shipping of the world.

Whether those mild modifications constitute the basis of the settlement which is now considered possible is not known. In view of President Wilson's supposed friendliness towards the English plea it is possible that the British foreign office may press with greater vigor for some of the other points set forth in Sir Edward Grey's note. But the subject of arbitration with which he closed his note is supposed now to be abandoned in favor of settlement by friendly diplomacy.

Washington Welcomes Case

Washington.—The general opinion in unofficial circles is that the administration would welcome a test in the supreme court on the question of the eligibility of the Japanese to naturalization.

So far, all decisions of record, mostly in west coast courts, have held that Japanese are not eligible because not white persons.

The issue is never been tested before the supreme court of the United States in a direct form.

The Japanese contend they are Malayan and Aryan in lineage and consequently may fairly claim to be classified ethnologically as the white persons described in the naturalization act.

The importance of a determination of the question and its relationship to the alien land legislation now pending in California, lie in the fact that as that act now stands before the legislature, any alien entitled to apply for naturalization may own and lease land in a state, so that a decision favorable to the Japanese contention would completely defeat the purpose of the legislation so far as it might be aimed at the Japanese.

Mostly White Fox

Prince Albert.—The shipments of fur from the north country this year are of unusual size and value. All the local fur trading companies report particularly large and valuable lots being brought in by trappers who annually visit this city with their pelts. The most prominent skin this year is that of the white fox and scores of pelts are coming in. Other valuable specimens are finding their way here, not the least important of which are two or three splendid polar bear skins of unusual size.

Is Member of Banking Firm

London.—The select committee appointed to inquire into the eligibility of Stuart Samuel occupying his seat in the commons, owing to his alleged participation in business transactions with an Indian banking firm, has reported that Mr. Samuel was a member of the firm of Samuel and Montague which traded with the government. The price council will shortly deliver judgment as to whether Mr. Samuel's seat in the house can be declared vacant.

Dakota Forest Fires

Deadwood, S.D.—The first forest fires of the season in the Black Hills are again menacing the National Forest. The last few days of warm weather has cost the Government heavily. Six fires in the National Forest are reported. In the Southern Hills the flames are 20 miles wide and three ranches were destroyed. At Buffalo Gap the prairie fire is devastating everything in its path and 1,000 men will be required to bring it under control.

FRANCE IS INTERESTED

Hope to Get Valuable Information of the Balkan War

Paris.—Two members of the Parliamentary Army Council, M. Meslin, ex-Minister of War, and M. Benazet, have left Paris for Adrianople to study in the spot the important question of the value of the French war material employed by the Balkan Allies, and the extent to which the Turkish fortifications, constructed after German plans, and furnished with German war material, resisted their fire. Before leaving M. Benazet made the following statement as to the object of the journey:

Parliament will shortly be asked to deliberate on the advisability of raising enormous credits in order to complete our armament, and our object is to furnish the most comprehensive information, both to the Parliamentary Army Council and the country. Adrianople was admirably defended by well-trained Turkish troops, who were sheltered behind the entrenchments and in steel vaults, identical with those that at the present moment furnish the fortifications of Metz and Strasbourg, and we propose asking the Bulgarian generals exactly of what value the French cannon made in our own arsenals were to them in the attack on Adrianople.

FOR WELLAND CANAL

Departmental Engineers Visit Big Ditch to Get the Latest Ideas

Ottawa, Ont.—Chief Engineer Bowden, of the railways and canals department, and Engineer Weller, who is in charge of the work on the Welland Canal, have returned from a trip to the Panama canal, where they spent the past month studying the great work which is about to link the two oceans. They have been investigating the latest engineering development as exemplified on the Panama canal with a view to applying these ideas to the new Welland undertaking.

The government is anxious for the Welland to be the latest work in modern canal construction. The two engineers are starting work at once on designing the canal construction, and tenders will be closed as soon as possible.

The preliminary work is already well under way, the route having been decided upon, and the first survey being also about complete. It is almost impossible for the contractors to get more than a start this year, but the next five years will see great activity along the line of the big ditch across the Niagara peninsula.

The canal that is being planned is designed to meet future needs for a long period and will be one of the greatest works of its kind on the continent.

Elevators for the West

Ottawa.—It is understood that the government has under consideration the question of establishing terminal elevators at several points in the west which afford alternative routes for shipment of grain.

The grain commission last summer at the instance of the government, investigated the matter, and reported in favor of such a plan, and recently the commission has been holding a series of conferences through the west on the same subject.

In the United States terminal facilities for the handling of grain are located at all important centres having a storage capacity estimated at 200,000,000 bushels. As a consequence the grain is being shipped from all these centres the year round.

Western Canada has but one terminal point, Port William and Arthur. It is possible that if the government decides upon these elevators they may insist upon the condition that milling industries be established.

The establishment of a terminal elevator which would contain all the grades of grain is the natural adjunct of such industry. Some official announcement is expected before the session closes.

A Volunteer Force

Wellington, N.Z.—The scheme for organizing a volunteer expeditionary force in New Zealand, available for service in any part of the empire, has been the subject of negotiations between the Dominion and the Imperial Government. It is now announced that progress has been made in these negotiations and that the views of His Majesty's Government will be submitted to the Dominion Cabinet.

The general opinion is that the volunteers joining the force will amount approximately to seven or eight thousand men. These men, owing to the universal system which exists in New Zealand will have already undergone training in the territorial force. The formation of this corps by New Zealand is the first step taken by the Dominions to form the Mother country with an estimate of the exact forces which will be available for the assistance of the empire in time of need.

$84,000,000 FOR DEFENCES

France Saves $16,000,000 by Cutting Cannon Into Howitzers

Paris.—The proposed extra expenditure of $100,000,000 on accelerating the work of national defence has been approved by the Chamber committee to which the bill was referred. A device invented by an artillery officer which will enable the cannon to be converted into howitzers for curved firing has reduced the proposed expenditure by $16,000,000, originally intended for manufacturing new howitzers.

The sum is to be expended thus: Railroad services, $3,400,000; artillery $42,800,000; engineering $32,000,000; commissariat $4,200,000; health $520,000; powder $1,060,000; geographical $20,000; total $84,000,000.

Dr. McKay Joins Stefansson

London.—Another important member joined the forthcoming Canadian expedition in the person of Dr. McKay, who was surgeon on the Shackleton Antarctic expedition. Dr. McKay will fill a similar position on the new Arctic expedition.

IS RICH IN MINERALS

VALUABLE DEPOSITS FOUND ALONG H.B. ROUTE

Prospectors are Staking Claims, and a Rush to this District is Anticipated—High Grade Samples of Ore Convince the Prospectors.

The Pas, Man.—That minerals in paying quantities exist within 100 miles of The Pas on both sides of the Hudson Bay railway and in close proximity thereto, and that new Manitoba is sure to see at an early date a rush for precious metals, similar to what happened in the Porcupine district in Northern Ontario, is the report that the Wright-Bancroft prospective party, which went north last winter and returned a few days ago, have brought with them.

Both men have spent the greater portion of their lives in this work. The fact also that the well known mining engineer, C. Bateman, of Toronto, has himself investigated the matter and made propositions for the taking over of the claims located by the party is evidence that its report is a reliable one.

The Wright-Bancroft party's field of action has been principally the Thicket Portage district, which is at the far extremity of the first contract of the Hudson Bay railway, therefore about 185 miles from here. The claims they have located number 30, as follows: Thicket Portage Manitoba group 6; Wintering Lake Dominion group 7; Ironstone Lake 1; Jupiter group 6; Cariboo Lake Cariboo group 3; Sandy Lake Rawhide group 8; the latter group is within 100 miles of The Pas. None of the first four groups are farther out than 10 miles from the Hudson Bay railway.

The Manitoba group being traversed by the grade samples, which have been assayed have shown very close to eleven dollars worth per ton of copper and gold.

The main and only trouble which may be encountered in the development of the claims located by the party as well as others of similar nature in the whole of new Manitoba will be the ability of the root and soil to keep water out, for if expensive pumping apparatus has to be used it may be found that the quantity of precious metal will not be sufficient to pay.

Mr. Wright himself stated that at Settling Lake there are three waterfalls of sufficient importance to generate an immense volume of power. In all probability, concluded Mr. Wright, when work begins and the establishment of smelters is found necessary, they will be located at The Pas.

Balloon is Ready for Voyage

Las Palmas, Canary Island.—The dirigible balloon Suchard II, is ready for the adventurous voyage across the Atlantic which Joseph Brucker, formerly of Milwaukee, purposes to make as soon as the weather is favorable for the start. Provisions and water sufficient to last 25 days have been taken on board. Brucker is convinced he will make Barbadoes or Trinidad before April 25. Engineer Krueger and mechanic Peter, both Germans, complete the crew.

GREY GOING TO

May be Some Significance in King's Trip to Berlin

London.—The British Foreign Secretary, Sir Edward Grey, will accompany the King to Berlin, says The Express, on the occasion of the wedding of Princess Victoria Louise, daughter of the German Emperor.

This will be Sir Edward Grey's first official visit abroad, and as the Russian Emperor is also expected to be in Berlin, the occasion may have a political significance.

PROGRESS WITH H.B. ROAD

M. McMillan Says Preparation: Made Will Allow Work to be Rushed During the Summer

The Pas, Man.—M. McMillan, of McMillan Bros., who have the contract for grading the first 185 miles of the Hudson Bay railway out of The Pas, has returned from mile 180 where he has been for six weeks. He states that 200 miles of sleigh road has been cut and 1,500 tons of supplies distributed in the different posts along the road.

According to Mr. McMillan there is a lot of good rolling country passed through by the railway with a number of beautiful lakes. Although the work this coming season will be through a rougher country than last year, and considerable rock will be met; with the better preparations which have been completed it is expected that the construction of the line will proceed much more satisfactorily this year than last.

According to the statement of an official, the work done in carrying supplies for such a considerable distance viz. 185 miles ahead by rail, is the biggest transportation undertaking which has ever been attempted with success through a similar class of country.

THE MARKET REPORT

Weekly Grain Letter Supplied by Thompson, Sons & Co., Grain Merchants, Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, April 15.—Immediately following our last review market took quite a strong turn again and prices went full, a cent higher. The stronger tone was due to higher foreign markets and reports of unfavorable weather in the United States winter wheat belt together with backward conditions for seeding of the spring wheat crop.

Later in the week there seemed to be a lull in the export demand and this with improved weather in the United States and Canadian Northwest caused a much easier feeling and a reaction in prices. Today's closing figures in the different option markets show a decline of from 1/4c. to 3/4c. for the week.

The principal drop to the wheat markets lately has of course been the European demand and any further tendency of a declining demand would result in lower prices. It is unreasonable to suppose that Europe will continue to buy day in and day out regardless of conditions elsewhere but from information at hand we judge the surpluses in Canada, the United States and Argentina will all be needed and will be taken care of without much further impairment in values. The winter wheat crop in the States maintains its previous perfect promise and the spring wheat crop is being seeded under favorable conditions. Seeding is well begun in most parts of the Canadian Northwest and there are no complaints except from a few districts which report an overabundance of moisture, in fact it is doubtful if soil conditions over the entire spring wheat belt have ever been so generally favorable as at the present time.

As long as these favorable crop conditions continue it will be difficult to advance prices in America as stocks for all domestic requirements are large. Foreign crop conditions are not quite so satisfactory according to this week's summary. Rains have been hindering spring sowing in the United Kingdom and weather continues unsettled. France requires dry and warmer weather and is complaining of a thin plant and loss in color. Seeding of the spring crops in Germany is well advanced. Severe frost has been experienced but no damage to the crop is mentioned. The weather in Russia is springlike and official reports regarding winter wheat crops are optimistic. Prospects for spring wheat crops are good. Romania reports a smaller wheat acreage. It is feared that the late sown wheat is shallow rooted. There is continued mention being made of very small sowing this year in Bulgaria and Turkey. Weather has been a little too dry in the Southern part of Italy otherwise outlook favorable. Outlook in Spain, Portugal and North Africa is favorable.

Harvesting in India is progressing under favorable weather conditions with crop good. Statistics for the week have tended to the bear side. World's shipments have again been heavy the total being 15,104,000 bushels as against 15,488,000 bushels last week and 11,072,000 bushels last year. The total wheat taken by continental countries for the past week was 8,944,000 bushels and the previous week 7,768,000 bushels, last year 5,352,000 bushels. The United States visible supply decreased 1,314,000 bushels but a larger decrease was expected. The total is now 55,457,000 bushels compared to 47,960,000 bushels a year ago. The Canadian visible showed a slight increase and is now 26,211,152 bushels compared to 29,797,387 bushels last year. The European visible supply increased 2,424,000 bushels this week making the total 94,400,000 bushels as against 91,976,000 bushels last year. The amount on ocean passage increased 4,128,000 bushels bringing the total to 64,040,000 bushels or 10,016,000 bushels more than reported a year ago.

Future trading in the Winnipeg market has been quieter and closing prices today are slightly lower. Exporters have been selling the May option in a small way. Some of this is surmised to be for Liverpool and continental importers who are hedging on part of their previous purchases. The spread between Minneapolis and Winnipeg May widened out to 5c. but it is generally thought most of the spreads between these options have been taken off and as a result the Winnipeg May is considerably easier. Despite the easier tone in futures cash prices are somewhat higher. One, two and three northern grades are 1/4c. to 1/2c. up and the lower grades are 1/4c. to 1c. higher.

There has been a moderate demand for all grades but receipts are falling off and this with the opening of navigation being at hand is responsible for stronger cash prices. It is getting difficult to sell Canadian grain going to Duluth in bond and buyers will now only take it at a discount ranging from 1/4c. to 1 1/2c. under Fort William and Port Arthur prices. Today's closing prices are No. 1 Northern wheat 83 1/2c. No. 2 Northern 86 1/2c. No. 3 Northern 83 1/2c. No. 4 80 1/2c. No. 5 76c. No. 6 71c. Feed 62c. No. 1 Alberta Red Winter wheat 91 1/2c. No. 2 A.R. 88 1/2c. No. 3 A.R. 85 1/2c. Futures closed May 90c. July 91 1/2c. October 87 1/2c.

Oats.—The price of 2 C.W. is unchanged but the lower grades have advanced 1/4c. to 1 1/2c. Today's closing values: No. 2 C.W. 34 1/2c. 3 C.W. 32 1/2c. extra 1 feed 33 1/2c. 1 feed 32 1/2c. 2 feed 30c. Futures closed May 34 1/2c. July 35 1/2c.

Barley.—Receipts have been running light this week and the demand has improved, especially for No. 4 and the Feed grades. Today's prices are 3 C.W. barley 49c. 4 C.W. 48 1/2c. Rejected 43c. Feed 42c.

Flax.—The flax receipts have also become much lighter and as a result the market is a shade firmer. Today's closing prices are No. 1 N.W.C. flax, 111 1/2c. No. 2 C.W. 109 1/2c. No. 3 C.W. 101c. Futures closed May 113c. July 115 1/2c. October 119c.

All prices quoted above are for in store Fort William or Port Arthur.

FOR WIRELESS OUTFIT

Tendering for Station of Much Power at Le Pas Terminals

Le Pas, Man.—Several firms are now tendering on the contract to build the wireless station or to be built there at an early date in connection with the construction of the Hudson Bay Railway. A. E. Roche, secretary-treasurer and chief engineer of the Canadian Marconi Telegraph Company of Toronto, and Walter A. Rash, of the Radio Telegraph branch of the Department of Naval Service, Ottawa, arrived in town. They inspected the ground, south and north of the river.

Construction on what will be the second largest wireless station in Canada will commence as soon as possible. The plant which is expected to cost about $100,000 will include four 250 feet steel towers and a 200 horse power engine. Both Mr. Roche and Mr. Rash found conditions at this point ideal, on account of the gradual and continual depression of the land towards the bay.

TO STOP DUELS

Emperor Wilhelm Spoke to Discourage Practice in German Army

Berlin.—Emperor William is endeavoring to reduce the number of duels fought by German army officers according to an announcement made to a committee of the Imperial Parliament by General Von Hooringen, Minister of War. His Majesty, said the Minister, admonished the commanding generals at his New Year's reception to give their attention to the matter, chiefly in the way of improving the training of officers. The Emperor followed this up with a reprimand to the army, calling attention to the number of duels caused by officers insulting their comrades or civilians. This was in the nature of a warning to the officers to strive against such practices. It concluded: Self-control and restraint must be cultivated as manly virtues.

Women versus Women

London.—Suffragettes carrying sandwich boards advertising a militant meeting at Islington were attacked by other women, who seized the boards and belabored the suffragettes with them. Hats were smashed and clothing was torn. The suffragettes were being badly mauled when the police arrived and escorted the women to a place of safety, followed by a jeering mob.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON IV.—SECOND QUARTER FOR APRIL 27, 1913

Text of the Lesson, Gen. xxxvii, 23-36, Memory Verses 26-27—Golden Text, 1 Cor. xiii, 4—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

We begin today some studies in the life of Joseph, who was in many respects a most wonderful type of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Spirit has told us by Paul that Adam and Eve suggest Christ and the church both by analogy and contrast.

We have seen much in the death and resurrection and marriage of Isaac but no character is quite so fully typified as that of Joseph. No one can be a type of Christ in the matter of being sinless, for He alone was without sin. But there are quite a number who because of incidents in their lives, official positions are, as it were, Christ.

We are to have seven studies in the history of Joseph and the next will be in chapter xl this lesson must touch xxxix as well as xxxvii. We are introduced to Joseph at the age of seventeen (verse 2). Shepherd with his brethren (verse 2). There were two peculiar things about him, for neither of which he was responsible—he was loved by Israel more than the others because he was the son of his old age, and a Lord gave him two dreams which indicated an exaltation above his brethren and even above his parents (verses 3-11).

Because of his father's love and these dreams it is written that his brethren hated him and they hated him yet the more and they envied him and as they saw him coming, being sent by his father to seek their welfare, they conspired against him to slay him (verses 12, 18, 20).

Our lesson verse today tells of his being stripped of his coat of many colors or pieces, cast into a pit, taken up again and sold as a slave for twenty pieces of silver and taken down to Egypt and sold to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's and captain of the guard. As his father waited and wondered concerning his precious boy, they brought home his coat, which they had dipped in the blood of a kid of the goats, and said: This have we found—know now whether it be thy son's coat or no. So Jacob was led to suppose that Joseph had been killed by a wild beast, and he refused to be comforted. He had sorely deceived his father, and having sown the wind he reaped the whirlwind.

Turning to Joseph, we find him both as a slave and as a prisoner falsely accused and wrongfully imprisoned called a prosperous man, for the Lord was with him. In Potiphar's house all that he had was put in Joseph's hand, and even in the prison the keeper put everything under his care, and whatsoever they did there he was the doer of it (xxxix, 1-6, 21-23). So the years passed with Joseph, who was sold for a servant, whose feet they hurt with fetters. He was laid in iron. Until the time that his word came, the word of the Lord ruled him (Ps. cv, 17-19).

In the Study of the Types, by Miss Ada R. Habershon, she notes the following points of analogy, giving the New Testament and her references. I am glad to quote them for those who are interested enough to look up the references, giving today only those from the two chapters we have looked at.

The good shepherd feeding his flock (John x, 11, 14). Loved by His Father (Matt. iii, 17). Hated, envied and disbelieved by his brethren (John iii, 19-20; vii, 5; xv, 25; Mark xv, 10; Luke xix, 14). His preeminence shown in his dreams (Col. i, 18). His faith observed like saying (Luke ii, 51). He willingly agreed to go to his brethren (Ps. xl, 7, 8; Luke xx, 13; John xii, 10). He went from Hebron (fellowship), came to Shechem and was found wandering in the field (John xvi, 28; xvii, 6, 24; iv, 45; Matt. xiii, 38; Luke ix, 58). He went after his brethren to seek their welfare and his father told him to bring him word again (Luke xix, 10; xv, 4; John xvii, 13). They conspired against him, mocked him, stripped him, put him in a pit, set down and afterward sold him to Egypt for twenty pieces of silver (Matt. xxvii, 1, 28, 36, 9; xxv, 15, 16, 14; Mark xv, 32; Ps. xl, 2; Luke 2, 14, 15).

He became a slave to an officer of Pharaoh but the Lord was with him and made all that he did to prosper (Dan. xlix, 7; iii, 10; Job, li, 7; John xvi, 32). Those who oppressed him were blessed for his sake and placed everything under his care (Eph. i, 3, 13, 32; John iii, 35; 1 Tim. i, 12). He was a goodly person well favored, yet without sin (Song v, 16; Luke ii, 52; Hab. ii, 15). Many other texts may be added to these, and we will quote further analogies from Miss Habershon's studies in future lessons.

It will help some to remember that "Whatsoever things were written afore time were written for our learning that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope, and that these things were our examples and happened unto them for types (Rom. xv, 4; 1 Cor. x, 6, 11, margin). I have no doubt but that Joseph was sustained in his sufferings by the glory set before him in his dreams, for since he could interpret the dreams of others, as we shall see in our next lesson, he must have understood something of the significance of his own. It is true of every redeemed soul, as it was true of Joseph,

W. PARK EVANS, Publisher and Proprietor.

Gleichen, Alberta, April 24, 1913

All should take a kindly warning from Chief Roberts and see that horses, cattle, pigs, etc., are not impounded. The Chief has been very lenient during the winter, but now that gardening has commenced he feels he must protect those who are anxious to make this a "city beautiful" by impounding all that the by-law calls for.

It is at least six years since Gleichen first put forth its claims that a customs office should be established in this town for the reason that it was the most central point between Calgary and Medicine Hat. This was then claimed for many excellent reasons, chief among them being population, bank clearances and the amount of dutiable goods arriving here.

Today the same claim is made and we would defy anyone to prove it otherwise.

The Bassano News, however, has recently discovered that the Gleichen and District Board of Trade has been petitioning the Dominion Government to grant the request and is quite wrathful. Indeed, the News goes so far as to knock Gleichen and make some very small remarks.

The CALL really does not believe the News is expressing the sentiment of the good people of Bassano in so doing. Yet we would give a friendly warning to the News and remind it that while all the towns along the line have admirably "boosted" their respective towns, Bassano has reached the stage of "booming". We really do not like to put it this way, but if the News cannot prove that Gleichen is not all that we claim in population, bank clearances, grain growing, stock raising and dutiable goods coming to this point then the CALL will feel it a duty—in parliamentary language—to ask the News to withdraw its recent uncalculated insinuations.

The News calls upon Bassano's "Board of Trade, Town Council, political organizations, individuals collectively and severally and all public bodies" to kick Gleichen all at one time.

The CALL does not object to the News "booming" Bassano, but we cannot stand for further exaggerations that are intended to knock other towns. We have not the slightest objection to Bassano doing all in its power to get the customs office so long as it acts fairly, but the News will do no good by knocking the efforts of other towns.

Nothing succeeds like success. We all know that the mere appearance of success is extremely conducive to success. This applies to business, why not to a town? If everything in a town is kept in good condition, homes pretty, comfortable and inviting, yards neat, orderly and attractive in other ways when possible, streets clean and well kept, the general opinion must be that such a town is, if not really flourishing, at least in a fairly prosperous condition. Nothing does more to improve the appearance of houses, barns and even fences, than a coat or two of paint. Then too, by improving our own premises in any way, we add to the attractiveness of the whole town. Isn't this worth considering?

Fra Elbertus, the sage, says that "Advertising is fast becoming a fine art; its theme is 'Human Wants' and where, when and how they may be gratified." Let us advertise our town, not necessarily through the press, but by making it a town well worth talking about. To accomplish this we must both work and talk. Join the Gleichen boosters.

The Bassano News is most anxious to learn the distance Gleichen is from Calgary and Medicine Hat. In case it cannot be found on the map the News published recently showing Bassano the hub of something less than a million railways—including the cut off now under construction from Gleichen to Shepard—we may say it is respectively fifty-six and one hundred and twenty miles.
For the News's benefit we will add Gleichen is and always will be the centre of population on this road and the most convenient place for a customs office.

We handle McCormick mowers and rakes. If you need a new haying machine, you can do no better than get a McCormick. McCormick mowers are light running; they are durable, and they are built in various sizes to meet the most varied requirements—3½, 4½, 5, 6 and 7-foot cut.
McCormick rakes are made in various widths in either hand or self dump styles. If you are undecided as to what machine you want, call and let us explain the many meritorious features found in the McCormick mower and rake construction. Learn why McCormick mowers and rakes are money savers. If you are not ready to buy,

With the advent of 1913 many new cars are noted on the Canadian markets. Both new and old show many refinements and improvements over 1912. McLAUGHLIN-BUICK builders have made good their claim to a country built car.

A car built for our none-to-good Canadian roads.

A car fitted with all the latest improvements.

The prices are moderate. Careful comparison is invited with the higher priced cars and especially with cheap cars whose makers base their extravagant claims of present worth on what their cars have not, instead of what they have.

We also have some excellent values in rebuilt cars repainted and overhauled.

The Unexpected Happened.

Mrs. Mulligatwny needed a change of air. The doctor was emphatic on this point. Her husband, however, being unable to go with her, she went alone, retiring as usual to her favorite holiday haunt.

On the morning after her arrival she suddenly discovered that she had come away without her watch. Thinking, therefore, that she must have dropped it on the thick carpet of the dining room, she forthwith wired to the maid at home:

Let me know if you find anything on carpet in dining room.

In due course she received a letter in reply:

Dear Madam—I was to let you know if I found anything on the dining room carpet. This is what I found this morning—three champagne corks, eighteen cigarette ends, five cigarette ends, thirty-six burnt matches and—

But Mrs. Mulligatwny did not read further. And when her husband returned home from the office that evening he found his faithful spouse awaiting him.—Answers.

Time For Drastic Measures.

An old woman was waiting nervously for a train on the Katy. We will call it No. 2. The agent came out and chalked up, "No. 2 is twenty minutes late."

The old woman smiled. Presently he returned and chalked up, "No. 2 is forty minutes late."

The old woman frowned. But when he reappeared and wrote, "No. 2 is sixty minutes late," she could stand it no longer.

"For the land's sake," she said, "will somebody please take that piece of chalk away from that man or we never will get away from this place?"—Baltimore News.

Prospective Lodger (fussy about noise)—Are you sure the house is quiet? Landlady—Very quiet, sir. Why, there's a singer in the next room, and it's got to be quiet or she can't practice.—Boston Transcript.

PIMPLES ITCHED AND BURNED

On Arms and Legs. Caused Running Sores. Would Tear Himself Till They Bled. Like Open Wounds. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

63 Stewart St., Toronto, Ontario.—

"When my baby was nine months old he had a lot of pimples come on his arms and legs which used to come to a head, then break and cause running sores. They were bright red spots, which itched and burned so badly that he would tear himself till he made them bleed and they were all like open wounds. They were on his face and arms so bad that he did not like to take him out. He could not sleep or rest anywhere. I tried several things at home and lots of different things people used to advise me, but he did not get a bit better."

"I bathed each place in warm water and Cuticura Soap and then I put some of the Cuticura Ointment on and bound them up in soft rags and he slept better that night than he had for three weeks, and he did not scratch himself once that night. I did that for three days, night and morning, when we noticed the sores were getting drier and healing, so I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment, and after a week and a few days there was not a blemish on him." (Signed) Mrs. F. West, Feb. 29, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with 32-p. book, send post card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 391, Boston, U. S. A.

GOT ALONG ALL RIGHT.

The Father's Fears For His Son's Business Ability Were Groundless.

SOMEbody ought to offer a prize for the best "diamond cut diamond" story. Such poetic justice is pulled off day after day, but the dramatic quality is only recognized by the victims of the system. Here is a fine instance, no less poignant because it happens to be true:

A certain Cleveland youth went out to Nevada a year or so ago to "seek his fortune," as they say in the romances. Recently he returned home. His father had sent him forth that he might learn to stand on his own legs. We must understand neither father nor son was a pauper nor anything like it. Well, when the boy got home he told his father that he had bought a fine silver mine for $10,000.

"I knew they'd get you, you unqualified dud!" stormed the father.

"But, dad, I didn't lose anything on it," answered the kid.

"You didn't? Well, you will. But why do you think you didn't?"

"I formed a company and sold it out for $30,000."

"You—you—where did you place the stock?"

"In Cleveland."

"Great snakes! I'll bet a million that I'm the man that bought it!"

"Don't bet, dad. You'd win, and I can't afford to let you do that!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

When She Gave In.

A domestic quarrel was in progress. Goaded beyond endurance at his indifference, she rose to her feet at last and exclaimed in accents wild and dramatic:

"I will go! I will not live a single instant longer with a man such as you are!"

"Mean that?" queried the husband, glancing up for a second over the top of his paper.

"I do," came the reply, in a voice cleverly laden with tears. Then, with a slight wavering of the dignity, albeit still in measured tones, "but why do you ask?"

"Oh, nothing really"—and the cruel brute only partially hid a widening grin—"only I should tell the police my wife had mysteriously disappeared and should then furnish them with a description of her. I should say she had curly hair, squinted, wore lines in boots, possessed a jaw of almost masculine immensity, sniffed painfully every other second and that her voice"—

But she had left the room—to take off her hat—and so missed the remainder of the details.—Answers.

Two Reasons.

Some old maids are that way because they ran away from the men. And others are that way because they ran after the men. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Speaking of Clothes.

Louis Tiffany, at the Egyptian fete that he recently gave in his New York studio, was led by the magnificence of some of the Egyptian vestments of his guests to say:

"These beautiful robes make me think of an old fellow whom I once met on a cold day down south."

"The air was bleak, and it beat on the old fellow's flesh through the many holes in his tattered garments. Yet, despite his tatters, he had a whole side of bacon on his shoulder."

"Uncle," said I, "why don't you spend your money on a warm coat instead of on all that bacon?"

"The old man answered gravely: 'Waal, sah, when I asks my back for credit I gits it.'"

"Then, patting and rubbing his stomach, he added: 'But dis bayer, sah—dis bayer always calls for cash.'"—Detroit Free Press.

SICILY THREATENS TO REVOL.

Exclusion of One of Her Representatives From Parliament Bitterly Resented

Rome.—It is reported that Sicily is stirred with indignation at the fate of Nunzi Nasi, the ex-minister of public instruction, who, on charges of continuous fraud and misappropriation of public funds was tried before the Roman senate, constituted into a high court of justice, and eventually condemned to prison, with the forfeiture of his civic rights.

On the plea of ill-health, but really in order to prevent a popular rebellion in Sicily, Nasi was then permitted to serve his term of imprisonment within the walls of the private residence in Rome. Cara-niè were stationed outside his apartments on guard, day and night, till his sentence was cut short by royal pardon.

The fallen cabinet minister thereupon quitted Rome for his Sicilian constituency at Trapani, where he was welcomed back amidst unparalleled scenes of public enthusiasm, civic functionaries of every grade participating in the demonstrations. Rather than abandon Nasi, Trapani has chosen to remain without representation in parliament for six years past; and it has re-elected its hero by overwhelming majorities eighteen times.

Nasi's term of civil proscription ceases next June; but the supreme court in Rome has just decided at Nasi's own instance, that he is no longer eligible for membership in parliament. This decision has been ratified by the parliamentary elections commission. The last word now rests with the chamber of deputies, which must discuss and settle the matter before the end of the present session.

Unless parliament quashes the decision against Nasi, the Sicilian deputies threaten a popular rising in the island. To promote the agitation, mass meetings of protest are being held everywhere, and the universities are taking a leading part.

Sicilians do not deny the truth of the charges against Nasi; but they allege that various ministers, both before and after him, whose names rise lightly to their lips, have been equally corrupt, whereas Nasi, whose ability was of a rare order and who conferred enormous benefits upon Sicily, has unjustly been made a scapegoat simply because he hailed from Sicily. At any rate, they maintain, having expiated his sentence, he should now resume the full exercise of his civic rights.

Meantime, another phase of the deplorable state scandal has terminated in this city. Prof. Giacomo Cortese, who was Nasi's under-secretary of state in the ministry of public instruction, is the subject of a trial before the higher council, for having attempted, under the pretext of scandalous revelations regarding Nasi's conduct, to induce that minister to nominate him to a permanent professorship; and for having subsequently in vengeance hurled against his former chief the string of accusations that caused Nasi to be dragged before the high court of justice.

A sentence, already ratified by the government, has been passed depriving him of his chair of latin literature in the University of Padua, besides stopping his stipend and suspending him from public office for two years.

Dispatches from Cattaro, the seaport of Montenegro announce that the fortress of Scutari is being subjected to a severe bombardment by the Montenegrin besiegers.

Rome.—The Cacciatori Italiani states that a party of hunters have captured two royal eagles, with their young, on the Alps near the Ledro valley. In the eagles' nest were found the bones of a child as well as the remains of 200 ducks, forty hares, a chamois, a fox and innumerable birds.

DR. TALI'S ON FOOL

Pres. of Board of Health.

"What shall I eat?" is the daily inquiry the physician is met with. I do not hesitate to say that in my judgment a large percentage of disease is caused by poorly selected and improperly prepared food. My personal experience with the fully-cooked food known as Grape-Nuts, enables me to speak freely of its merits.

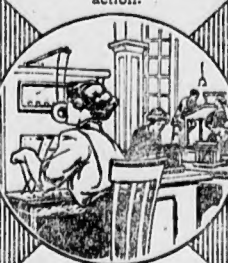

"From overwork, I suffered several years with malnutrition, palpitation of the heart, and loss of sleep. Last summer I was led to experiment personally with the new food, which I used in conjunction with good rich cow's milk. In a short time after I commenced its use, the disagreeable symptoms disappeared, my heart's action became steady and normal, the functions of the stomach were properly carried out and I again slept as soundly and as well as in my youth."

"I look upon Grape-Nuts as a perfect food, and no one can gainsay but that it has a most prominent place in a rational, scientific system of feeding. Anyone who uses this food will soon be convinced of the soundness of the principle upon which it is manufactured and may thereby know the facts as to its true worth." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.

ROYAL DOCUMENTS IN BOTTLE

List of Valuable Jewels Once Owned by the French Empress Eugenie

Paris, France.—An inventory of jewels that belonged to the Empress Eugenie was discovered recently at Montlouis, in the Pyrenees-Orientale department, by a young soldier who was taking a stroll near this fortification. He noticed the neck of a bottle sticking out of the ground, and unearthed it. In it was a document bearing the seals of the Second Empire, dated September 4, 1870, and having the inscription: Inventory of jewels and bank notes entrusted today to Manuel Perez to be taken to Madrid and handed over to the Comtesse de Montijo—probably, a relation of the Empress. Several items followed:

A pearl necklace presented by the Emperor of Russia value at $100,000.

Two pearl bracelets from the Queen of England, valued at $125,000.

A ruby and diamond parure, from the Shah of Persia, valued at $160,000.

A pearl and diamond necklace from the Grand Duc Constantine, of Russia, valued at $165,000.

Four purses six bracelets and three necklaces, valued at $320,000.

The document was headed Paris, Palace of the Tuilleries, and signed by the Grand Chamberlain of the Palace.

When the authorities visited the spot where the inventory was discovered, they found part of a human skeleton, which had apparently been there for more than forty years.

RODS FIND WAVES UNDER EARTH

Remarkable Result of Rigid Test of Many Diviners' Skill

Paris, Fra.—A number of celebrated scientists recently tested the powers of four wielders of the divining rod in the Bois de Vincennes.

A large deserted quarry underlaid a portion of the wood and the diviners were asked to point out the underground galleries and shafts. At the end of the experiment their statements were to be compared by M. Armand Vire, the city surveyor, with a specially constructed chart. The organizers stated that it was impossible for any of the competitors to have had any previous knowledge of the subterranean passages, M. Vire being the only person aware of the exact positions.

The first man with the divining rod was M. Pelapret, a sturdy peasant, who carried a supple forked wand of hazel. For some time he walked steadily forward, the hazel wand trembling slightly. Suddenly the wand twitched and M. Pelapret, stopping, said: A cavity begins here.

After walking round on the grassy slope to measure the extent of the cavity, he gave the result of his observations to M. Vire, saying that the cavern was over seven yards deep and that it was quite dry.

The other competitors stepped forward in turn. They used wands of walrusbone, bamboo and copper. Three other underground pits were, like the first, marked out by them with bits of paper, with the approximate depth. The last, the last to use the trembling rod, went so far as to indicate somewhat vaguely it is true, four galleries which branched off from the main shaft, the site of which he had marked out on the turf.

M. Vire, the surveyor, then unrolled the official map and there was a moment's breathless silence. Every one of the competitors had succeeded with more or less accuracy in marking out caverns or pits which actually existed, and the four galleries spoken of by the last competitor were also traced on the map. The depth given was correct.

As a final proof of the virtues of the magic rod M. Probat consented to be led blindfolded over the area, and the result he obtained corresponded almost exactly with the first indications he had given.

EVERY WOMAN IS A NURSE

Spread of Patriotic Fervor in Republic Has Caught the Gentler Sex

Paris, France.—The sacrifice demanded of the male population of France by the return to the law of three years' military service has evoked the keenest attention among the women of the country to do something in their turn.

The Society of the Women of France, a Red Cross institution which numbers 150,000 members, publishes an appeal that a number of posts in the auxiliary services of the army should be given to women.

The Secretary of the society points out that in time of war 40,000 men would be required for military field hospitals, and that they could be set free for service in the fighting lines if sufficient women could be found to take their place.

M. M. de Waleffe, the well-known writer, makes the following original proposals for compulsory hospital training for all women:

After the passage of the three years' bill into law we should ask the minister of war to consider the question of women's service. I can well imagine a law, the three principal features of which would be:

Every woman of 20 years of age, married or unmarried, to perform a six months' service in the hospitals, and every subsequent year to serve for three weeks until the age of 45.

Women with children under 7 years of age need not perform such service. Women with more than three children are exempt from further service.

REAL DUEL ON STAGE

He and the Barytone Horrify Audience by Fierce and Unexpected Conflict

Paris, France.—The Journal publishes a Madrid telegram reporting an extraordinary and tragic affair which, it is said, occurred recently at the theatre at Argamasilla de Alba, in the province of Ciudad Real.

It appears that the leading baritone, Senor Pardo, and the chief tenor, Senor Martinez, attached to the operatic company at present performing in the town, were deadly enemies as a consequence of rivalry in a love affair, and they had agreed to fight a duel to death.

They had, however, decided to await the termination of the operatic season in the little town in order that their rivalry might not interrupt the performance.

The season terminated with a performance of "Carmen," and at the close of the third act the spectators were horrified to find themselves the witnesses of a fierce duel between the two singers.

The fight did not last long, the tenor, Martinez, falling dead at the feet of his rival.

There is one thing that may be said to the credit of a small boy; he never pretends to be anyone he doesn't like.

The World's Best Liniment Needed In Every Family From Infancy To Old Age

If Your Home Is Without 'Nerviline' Read the Following Closely.

The high cost of living to-day demands economy on every side. Sickness is expensive. Far better to treat little ills before they grow serious. For this reason every home should have handy on the shelf a good remedy like Nerviline, which cures the minor ailments that occur in every family.

For example, when the boy comes in with wet feet and a light cough, Nerviline will cure him. If a cold has settled on his chest, rub on Nerviline and the cold will go.

If something has been eaten that causes cramps, nausea, or diarrhoea, just twenty drops of Nerviline—that's all and cure is effected.

As a liniment for outward application in case of Neuralgia, Lamé Back, Sciatica, Lumbago or Rheumatism, it's really hard to imagine how Nerviline relieves and how soon it cures.

Nerviline is nothing new. No, it's one of the oldest and best known remedies. Used in thousands of homes by the people of many nations, simply because it stops pain, cures sickness, and rids the family of ills before they become troublesome. Get the family size bottle, price 50c.; trial size 25c., at all stores, drug stores and The Catarrhzone Co., Buffalo, N.Y.

IMPURE BLOOD IN THE SPRING

The Passing of Winter Leaves People Weak and Depressed.

As winter passes away it leaves many people feeling weak, depressed and easily tired. The body lacks that vital force and energy which pure blood alone can give.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an all-year-round blood builder and nerve tonic, but they are especially useful in the spring. Every dose helps to make new, rich, red blood. Returning strength commences with their use and the vigor and cheerfulness of good health quickly follows.

There is just one cure for lack of blood and that is more blood. Food is the material from which blood is made, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills double the value of the food we eat. They give strength, tone up the stomach and weak digestion, clear the complexion of pimples, eruptions and boils, and drive out rheumatic poisons.

If you are pale and sallow, if you feel continually tired out, breathless after slight exertion, if you have headaches or backaches, if you are irritable and nervous, if your joints ache, if your appetite fails and food does not nourish nor sleep refresh you, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will make you well and strong. To build up the blood is the special purpose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and that is why they are the best spring medicine. If you feel the need of a tonic at this season give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial and you will rejoice in new health, new strength and new energy. Do not let the trying weather of summer find you weak and ailing. Build yourself up now with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—the pills that strengthen.

Ask for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and do not be persuaded to take something else. If your dealer does not keep these Pills they will be sent by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

JEALOUSY LEADS TO ARREST

Thinking Booty Would be Given Her Rival, Woman Betrays Accomplice

Berlin.—Three thieves who stole a Russian countess' jewelry valued at over $30,000 have been caught—Frau Pfeffer (Baby) in Berlin, and her two accomplices, Kolberg and Krause, the mooncled lieutenant in Munich. Baby, when arrested, made a clean breast of the entire transaction, and, accompanied by a detective, traveled to Munich, where she arranged a meeting with the two men with the knowledge of the detective. All three are now in prison, and the Russian woman is again in possession of her trinkets. In addition, a jeweler with whom they had made arrangements for the disposal of their booty, has been arrested. He had already unfastened the stones and melted down the settings.

It seems that Baby was moved to her treachery by jealousy of another woman friend of Kolberg, a dancer. She feared that Kolberg might be inclined to bestow some of the stolen property on this rival. When Frau Pfeffer's husband heard of his wife's criminal dealings, he committed suicide in Berlin.

Merely Wanted to Know

The daughter of the house had just returned from a visit with her Western cousins, during which she was extolling the virtues of her intended. Oh, mother, she exclaimed. He's just grand. So square, so upright! So highly polished! Why even in his notes there is such a sympathetic tone that sometimes I wonder if I am not reading the music of the gods! Mercy's sake, child! interrupted mother, are you talking about a young man or a piano.

Warts are unsightly blemishes, and corns are painful growths. Hollaway's Corn Cure will remove them.

There! said the young wife proudly, as she deposited the hot plate carefully on the table. That's the first pie that I ever made without any help; all alone myself.

So it exclaimed her husband enthusiastically looking it over critically meanwhile. And as long as it is the very first, my dear, don't you think that, instead of cutting it, it would be nice to keep it for a souvenir? How would it do for a souvenir?

DEATH ENDS INJURY

Girl Takes Poison While Priest Prays Over Father's Grave

St. Petersburg.—With the advent of spring the number of suicides or attempted suicides in St. Petersburg has reached a daily average of about 100. Most are due to abject poverty.

Recently a young girl asked her attendant priest at the Volkovo Cemetery to recite a memorial service over the grave of her father. She sobbed bitterly and when the priest and sacristan began to sing the beautiful "Eternal Memory," took a small bottle out of her pocket and hastily swallowed the contents. She was taken to a hospital in a big conveyance. In a letter she said, quoting the title of Dostoevsky's novel, that since the death of her father she had been so humiliated and insulted that life had become unbearable.

Took Him at His Word

Darling, he murmured, as soon as they had been seated in the high-priced restaurant, you can have anything you want. This bill for $100. Shall I read it off to you?

No, replied the dear girl, just read it to the waiter.

In Memoriam.

None but those who have sat in the shadow of a great bereavement can justly weigh such sorrow as that of Mr. J. A. Blackbourne in the loss of his wife on the 15th, who is left with five small children to care for, ranging from one month to eight and a half years of age. We all have our troubles, but it truly seems we can always find some one who has more.

In extending to him our most sincere sympathy in his bereavement we know that not only those who are friends but everyone in this district will join us.

About three years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Blackbourne came to Gleichen to make their home on a farm about eight miles northwest of town where they lived as a happy family, but with their family of little ones had not the opportunity of making many acquaintances. Indeed, Mrs. Blackbourne was seldom away from home, but as a good mother and a loving wife devoted herself to those dear to her and gained the highest esteem of all, which was amply testified to by the large number who attended the service conducted by Rev. Mr. McWilliams in the Methodist church, Friday afternoon, after which a long procession followed the remains to the Gleichen cemetery where she was placed at rest.

Deceased was a young woman of only 32 years and the language at our command will not suffice to express the general regret of her departure as requested by those who knew and loved her.

It is sad at any time to stand beside the bedside of the dying and watch life's ebbing tide drifting the loved one slowly away, but when a young lad in his teens, good true, strong and robust suddenly disappears and his horse comes home to tell of that boy's death, then it is that father, mother, brother and sisters hearts are wrung to almost the breaking point as they with his companions search hour after hour to at last bring him from a watery grave and finally place him in an earthly one. Such was the experience of Mr. and Mrs. Leahey and their family of three girls and one other son, which is reported elsewhere in this issue. We unite with the many friends of the departed in extending most sincere sympathy to this family in their bereavement and most readily comply with their wishes to express thanks to their many friends for the kindness shown them, especially to Mr. Hill, his family and employees in searching so diligently for the son and the efforts to make light the great loss sustained.

GET YOUR CANADIAN HOME FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC

Wonderfully fertile land is offered for sale by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company at prices ranging from $11 to $30 per acre. There is no better agricultural land than this virgin Canadian soil. It is unsurpassed for all forms of agriculture, including grain growing, stock raising, dairying, poultry culture, vegetable growing, and general mixed farming. The lands are convenient to railways and markets, and are located in a country of low taxation and delightful climate.

TWENTY YEARS TO PAY

Under the Company's new policy no land is sold to speculators, but only to those who will occupy and improve it. The terms of sale are now one-twentieth cash and the balance spread over twenty years, with interest at six per cent per annum.

ASSISTANCE TO FARMERS

Under certain conditions the Company will advance a loan of $2000 to new settlers to be used in erecting a house and barn, fencing the land and sinking a well. This loan is repayable on the same terms as the purchase price.
